They are dedicated Scouters who help units check into camp, provide program resources and help in checking the units out at the end of the weekend.

Each Campmaster uses his or her Scouting and camp experience to help make camping at a G.N.Y.C. camp a FUN, SAFE, and REWARDING experience.

While each Camp is unique there are common Campmaster qualifications:

- You must be a registered Scouter with the BSA
- You are willing to donate one or more weekend during the Fall, and/or the Winter/Spring camping seasons.
- You must take the Campmaster Training Course offered by either
